STATINTL

FROM:

SUBJECT: Corporate Overseas Pay Policy

On April 16, 1958, we circulated to all Supervisors copies of the approved Corporate Overseas Pay Policy.

The Legal Department has now determined that a United States citizen under usual circumstances, is not exempt from United States Taxes unless he is out of the country for more than eighteen months, instead of fifteen months, as stated in the policy.

Will you please, therefore, substitute the word "eighteen" in place of "fifteen" in the fifth line of the paragraph on Taxes, on page two of the policy statement.
